

the Panel...

HRH 2030

the Role of Human Resources for Health

Hosted by Chemonics

VOICES from the field

June 13, 2019

in Optimizing Health Systems

Moderator Sarah Scheening

Houleye N'Diaye
MALI

Grace Namaganda
MALAWI

Matar Camara
SENEGAL

Juan Barco
COLOMBIA

Marilyn Lorenzo PHILIPPINES

Zuby Sjahrizal
INDONESIA

Ghislaine Djidjoho
COTE D'IVOIRE

- Partnerships and trainings for women's groups to increase access to care

- ↑ 9,000 women
- ↑ 200%

- Recruitment of 300+ health workers for delivery of HIV and other services

- government commitment to transition PEPFAR-supported health workers to their payroll

- Capacity building for leadership and management
- BOM: existing institution with this mandate
- Social Health framework & tools to build capacity to address ...
- Violence against children and adolescents
- and migration from Venezuela

improving ACCOUNTABILITY of the health system

- UHC and primary care services and investments in healthcare workforce for better family planning & TB services
- e-learning

improving AFFORDABILITY of the health system

- National Health Workforce Account,
- Data use, and business analytics

- availability of quality-assured anti-malarials, nets, IRS

- Capacity building for pharmacists and supply chain managers

improving RELIABILITY of the health system

