INVESTING IN HEALTH AND CARE WORKERS IS GOOD VALUE FOR MONEY.

A UN Report concluded that investments in education and job creation in the health and social sectors result in a triple return of improved health outcomes, global health security, and inclusive economic growth.

USAID
FROM THE AMERICAN PEOPLE

Health Workers are present in all parts of the Vision for Health System Strengthening Shifts the focus from strengthening individual functions or building blocks of the health system to a focus on intermediate outcomes, which USAID defines as Equity, Quality and Resource Optimization.
